

MEASURE K SCHOOL BONDS
Building for 21st Century Learning

UPDATE
SUMMER 2016

Board Calls for November Bond Election

In response to strong public support for repairing aging schools, the Long Beach Unified School District Board of Education this week approved the placement of a $1.5 billion school repair and safety bond measure on the Nov. 8, 2016 ballot.

The ballot measure will require approval by at least 55 percent of voters who cast ballots on that day.

Read More

Alan Reising Heads Facilities

Alan Reising has been named by the Board of Education as the new executive director of Facilities Planning and Development. Chief among his duties is management of Measure K funds, staff and contractors for the $1.2 billion bond measure.

Read More

Changes Set at Renaissance High

Starting this fall, the oldest high school campus in the Long Beach Unified School District will be transformed into a 21st Century learning environment.

Read More

KEEPING IT LOCAL

Valeria Gama Blazes Trails

When Valeria Gama was growing up, she dreamed of designing buildings as an architect. But when she got to college and discovered that her strengths were in management and math, she switched her major to construction management.

Read More

Seniors Get On-the-Job-Training

College students aren't the only ones getting on-the-job training at the Measure K Jordan High School project site.

This past year a dozen high school seniors from Jordan High and Jordan Plus got an up-close look at construction trades through a free program known as STAR.

Read More

Upcoming Events

Citizens' Oversight Committee Meeting

Thursday, Sept. 22, 2016 at 5:00 pm

Optional Tour at 4:30 pm

Polytechnic High School Construction Trailer

1600 Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach, California 90813

Did You Know?

- Measure K funds have improved facilities at every campus in the school district
- Most LBUSD schools are at least 60 years old
- New security systems are keeping schools safer and more secure
- Every school in LBUSD has wi-fi on campus

Long Beach Unified School District Measure K Bond Program
2425 Webster Avenue, Long Beach, California 90810
Questions? Contact Vivien Hao via vhao@lbschools.net.