DID YOU KNOW?

- Measure K was approved by 71 percent of voters in 2008.
- McBride, the first high school to open in Long Beach in nearly a generation, was built with Measure K funds.
- All schools will have campus-wide wi-fi by the fall of 2014.
- No Measure K Funds can be used on salaries or operational costs.

Busiest Year Yet for Measure K Bond Program

This year is expected to be the busiest yet for the Measure K Bond Program, approved in 2008 by local voters to make available $1.2 billion for school construction and renovation.

“Seven years into the bond program, we have made good progress already...

CITIZENS' OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

Maria Slaughter Champions School Facilities

Q: What motivated you to seek the Citizens' Oversight Committee seat representing taxpayers?

A: As a homeowner and taxpayer, I was interested in learning more about how Measure K property tax dollars are being used to repair and build schools in my local area.

KEEPING IT LOCAL

Gus Galindo Returns to Design Jordan Renovations

When Gus Galindo was a student at Jordan High 30 years ago, the campus looked much like it does today. In fact, some of the buildings are 50 to 70 years old and the campus has never had a major renovation.

Until now. The Jordan campus is about to get a facelift, thanks to $136...
